The mission of the AMERICAN BATTLEFIELD TRUST is to preserve America's hallowed battlegrounds and educate the public about what happened there and why it matters.

THE AMERICAN BATTLEFIELD TRUST is fueled by a genuine love of our nation's history and the belief that it carries a powerful role in our society.
Our work to preserve hallowed acreage is a venture that provides multifold benefits, which can be felt by current and future generations. During the expanse of 2022, we poured our hearts into expanding our impact on physical landscapes and growing our presence in classrooms not only in the United States — but around the world.

PRESERVE

THROUGHOUT its 35-year history, the Trust has cumulatively saved more than 55,000 acres of battlefield land. This includes more than 1,282 acres through 30 transactions at 23 battlefields in 11 states during 2022 alone. A full listing of those transactions follows.

In May, the Trust finally paid off the long-term loan it had needed to finance the most expensive purchase in the history of battlefield preservation — $12.2 million in 2006 for the 208-acre Slaughter Pen Farm, where more than 5,000 soldiers fell during the Battle of Fredericksburg on Dec. 13, 1862. The land is in a rapidly growing commercial area and was in imminent danger of development.

While those acres were added to the Trust's preservation ledger 16 years ago, the 30 new acquisitions in 11 different states in 2022 added an additional 1,281 acres, raising the Trust's lifetime tally to 55,944 acres. Another 1,200-plus acres were under contract as 2022 ended.

Beyond the numbers, these purchases included exciting new acquisitions. At Gettysburg, the Trust and its partners purchased the 4.1-acre Battlefield Military Museum tract — core battlefield land on East Cemetery Hill along Baltimore Pike opposite the Evergreen Cemetery. The Trust also acquired the 0.63-acre lot of General Pickett's Buffet on Steinwehr Avenue on the north end of the field of Pickett's Charge.

At Antietam, the Trust acquired a 5.61-acre tract within the Confederate lines that was part of the historic Reel Farm. In Mississippi, at Champion Hill, the Trust purchased the 353.6-acre Champion Hill Farms tract in the heart of that 1863 battleground. And in the center of the battlefield at Chancellorsville, the Trust acquired the 42.19-acre Grenn Tract, the site of Dowdall's Tavern.

And as 2022 ended, the Trust was in the final stages of acquisitions at five 'new' battlefields — three from the Civil War and two from the Revolution. Once completed, these purchases will bring the total number of battlefields preserved by the Trust and its partners to 155. ★

Between January 1, 2022, and December 31, 2022, the American Battlefield Trust completed 30 individual transactions, protecting a total of 1,282 acres at 23 battlefields in 11 states. This land is valued at over $19,282,849, but thanks to a host of matching grants and other revenue sources, the Trust secured its preservation through a net cash outlay of approximately $2,153,722 — a leverage factor of 9-to-1.

EDUCATE

THE EXPANSION and enhancement of the American Battlefield Trust's educational programs continues to be a key priority for the organization as it works to counteract the negative effects of less history being taught in schools.

In 2022, the Trust's Teacher Institutes, both in-person and virtual, professionally developed some 900 teachers from nearly every state and five countries. Despite pandemic restrictions, our Traveling Trunks, filled with fascinating history, went to 78 schools in 35 states, reaching some 13,800 students. Additionally, we have launched our Great Task Youth Leadership program with four trips from three states in 2022.

The importance of reaching young people was dramatically demonstrated by the fact the 80 percent of the record 15 million visits to our website, battlefields.org, were from students. Moreover, website visits from education sources such as Google Classroom were up 42% as we continued to improve the website's content visibility on Google. We are now on the front page for searches on not only the Civil War, but the American Revolution and the War of 1812.

The popularity of our Baltimore Virtual Field Trip video, which has collected more than 80,000 views, has helped invigorate a program that now includes six more field trip videos. On YouTube, our videos have been viewed more than 50 million times, tripling our 2021 number. We have 172,000 new subscribers, up four times, allowing us to surpass 350,000 followers and giving us a revenue-generating stream that was higher than ever in 2022. These videos engage every age group almost equally.

Our Gettysburg and Antietam anniversary video series, featured on our website and YouTube, included 38 videos that collected more than 1.3 million views while our "video swing" to Tennessee and Georgia produced 40 new videos. We released our first series of 25 animated Civil War videos and have added 26 more American Revolution videos to our How We Became America: The Untold History library of short videos.

We're also busy upgrading battlefield signage, with new interpretive, site identification and "Preserved Forever" signs installed at Cedar Mountain, New Market Heights, Gettysburg, Brandy Station, Manassas, Chickasaw Bayou and on the Liberty Trail in South Carolina featuring Revolutionary War sites.

And as the COVID pandemic receded, our Field Trip assistance program came back to life. We had more applications this past summer than the last two years combined. ★

THE AMERICAN BATTLEFIELD TRUST is confident of a bright future in the preservation of hallowed ground because of the devotion and dedication of its tens of thousands of members and its many partners, including state and local preservation organizations, the American Battlefield Protection Program and battlefield landowners who care about the history of their properties.

To maintain and nurture that loyalty, the Trust in 2022 continued to expand its wide range of programs designed to inspire and educate. As we returned to our usual medley of in-person events, the Revolutionary War's Southern Campaign was brought to life at a Donor Thank You Weekend in South Carolina. Members visited the battlefields of Northern Virginia during our Annual Conference at Chantilly, Virginia, and were afforded a glimpse into our "Revolutionary" beginnings at the Trust's Grand Review in Valley Forge Pennsylvania. It was a joy to be reunited with our fellow preservationists.

During the summer, our members enjoyed nearly 40 "Twilight Tour" history hikes across several states, taking advantage of the warm nights to hear captivating stories from top historians.

An astounding 3,202 volunteers joined us for Park Day 2022 at 92 historic sites across the nation, generating $239,749 of volunteer labor to spruce up the properties.

Our total number of social media followers across our many channels topped more than 868,000 in 2022 and our goal for 2023 is to surpass one million.

Demonstrating our commitment to the power of place, the Trust joined forces with the Congressional Medal of Honor Society in launching the Medal of Honor Valor Trail™ in March. While a physical trail is still taking shape, on Veterans Day we debuted an innovative map that allows users to virtually follow in the footsteps of Medal of Honor recipients by plotting all 3,515 citation locations on a global map of battlefields.

With our friends at the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR), we launched the American Revolution Experience, a new website. We continued to blaze The Liberty Trail in South Carolina by launching a Liberty Trail app and sharing details about the trail on an episode of the PBS television show "Travels With Darley."

And in furtherance of our primary mission of saving land, we announced a goal of saving 2,500 acres of Revolutionary War battlefields to mark the conflict's upcoming 250th anniversary and launched campaigns to save land at Fort Ann and Fort Ticonderoga in New York, Guilford Courthouse in North Carolina, and Eutaw Springs, Fort Johnson and Hobkirk Hill in South Carolina. ★

FINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

The figures below reflect the audited financials for Fiscal Year 2022: April 1, 2021 – March 31, 2022.

REVENUES, GAINS AND OTHER SUPPORT

The Trust is a cash-flow business and, as a result, looking at static revenues and expenses, like those seen here, can be misleading. As soon as land is saved, it is capitalized and goes straight to our balance sheet (assets), not shown in the expenses displayed here. Therefore, much of our land preservation activities are not represented in the expenses. The land that we've saved and currently own makes up the biggest portion of our assets.

DEDICATED TO CONNECTING Americans with their history on the ground where it was forged through battlefield preservation and education, the American Battlefield Trust remains firmly committed to upholding the very highest standards of fiscal responsibility and meticulous management of the donations entrusted to us by our supporters. The Trust understands that among the many worthwhile charitable causes an individual may back, our members' choice to contribute their hard-earned monies to our organization represents not only a steadfast belief in our mission, but also remarkable confidence in the Trust's ability to execute the various aspects of that mission with success.

Our staff works diligently to serve as effective and efficient stewards of our members' contributions. Since the organization's genesis in the 1980s, we have successfully preserved more than 55,000 acres of America's battlefields, putting every dollar we can directly toward land preservation and the creation of educational resources that expand upon the nation's formative first century. In addition to the sound fiscal management that allows the Trust to maximize the amount of funding used for program services, we aim to magnify donor contributions by carefully and resourcefully utilizing matching grants from numerous sources, which frequently multiplies donor contributions by a factor of three or more. Essentially, the Trust has pledged its accountability for delivering tangible, measurable, and verifiable accomplishments in the pursuit of our mission.

In recognition of our spectacular work in the arena of fiscal responsibility — made possible by individuals like you — the Trust continues to be regarded as a four-star charitable organization from the nonprofit watchdog group, Charity Navigator. This achievement is the highest awarded by the charity evaluator and puts the Trust in the top one percent of the nation's nonprofits. But this was not the only accolade acknowledging the accountability and integrity of the Trust. We also continue to be recognized by GuideStar, another watchdog group, as an organization that seeks to meet the highest standards of public accountability and program effectiveness. The Trust proudly displays the Platinum GuideStar Nonprofit Seal of Transparency as a marker of our dedication to financial and managerial responsibility. The Trust is further accredited by the Better Business Bureau's Wise Giving Alliance, an honor achieved by meeting all 20 of the Better Business Bureau's standards for governance and oversight, measuring effectiveness, finances and fundraising.

With the continued passion and generosity of our wonderful donors, the Trust keeps charging forward in the pursuit of our profound mission. ★

DONOR RECOGNITION SOCIETIES

THE TRUST is deeply indebted to each individual who chooses to support our work and maintains several donor recognition societies that recognize them. The Color Bearer Society consists of those who make an annual membership contribution in excess of $1,000. The Honor Guard legacy giving society recognizes those who have made the American Battlefield Trust a beneficiary of their estate plans. The Steadfast honors those individuals who have made more than 100 individual gifts over the course of their membership.

The significant growth we have experienced in these categories has rendered these lists so long that they have driven up our printing costs significantly. Thus, we have made the decision to include those lists only in the digital version of this report, which can be viewed at www.battlefields.org/AnnualReport2022.
